August 13. 1860.

My dear Sir,

A young friend of mine Mr Charles Meredith is going on expedition to the United States. In the course of it he may probably reach Cambridge. I thought I might venture to ask of you to show him what there is to be seen. He is travelling with his sister for his health. It is so long since we had any communication that I almost doubt whether I ought to make this bold. But it is pleasant to have an opportunity of expressing you & Mr Gray that I think the remembrance of the days when we did meet. I wish they could come again. That we could see you here.
I should much like also to be remembered to Mr & Mrs Loring whose pleasant visit the record I have not forgotten - I hope to very prosper. I am at present beginning a study of it as part of a medical training, to which I have subjected myself; and shall look at your book with interest.

My very kind remembrance to Mrs Gray.

Yours very faithfully

Richard Congreve

Dr. Asa Gray
Cambridge.
